Indian Law Project Staff Attorney – Reno/Yerington Office

Nevada Legal Services has an opening for a staff attorney within our Indian Law-Project (ILP). Nevada Legal Services is a statewide non-profit that provides free legal assistance to low income Nevadans across the state. The Indian Law Project is based out of our Reno office and serves the 27 Native American tribes and colonies within the State of Nevada. This position will be based out of our Reno office or Yerington office.

ILP provides a wide range of services to both tribal members and tribal governments based upon the needs expressed by each community. In that capacity, the Program acts as public defender in a number of tribal jurisdictions, provides legal assistance in various civil matters, and represents tribes in ICWA proceedings. ILP also conducts clinical programs, outreaches, and training sessions for a variety of tribal courts. Frequent travel throughout Nevada, including overnight stays, is required.

We provide paid sick and vacation time, medical, dental, vision and life insurance. The salary for the position is $50,000-$68,000. Salary depends on experience.

Required Qualifications:

- Applicants should be licensed to practice in Nevada or in another state and eligible for admission pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 72.1. Recent graduates awaiting results from the most recent bar examination will be considered, but continued employment will be contingent on passing the bar.
- Experience with and knowledge of federal Indian law or tribal law preferred.
- Strong interpersonal skills and an ability to work collaboratively with a diverse team.
- Ability to work with low-income clients from diverse backgrounds.

Application Procedure:

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until the position is filled. Please send a cover letter, resume and writing sample to: Human Resources, e-mail to careers@nevadalegalservices.org. Please reference "Indian Law-Project Staff Attorney" in your email.
